Yes...customer sending P.O. this morning, but I made the mistake of telling him it was stock, but like you say, that one would be for Trans North Helicopters #8000738 correct?

So I'll call him back and let him know. Would you be able to provide me with a fixed date on that?

Thanks a bunch,
Ciao for now,
Chantal

I know it's early.....But.

I sold a D350-721-041 that's going out on June 10. I have another P.O. coming today. Would that still be stock or is the one in my system the one going out Friday.

Thanks,
Chantal

We have 85 of the MS17987C1414 Pins

If the AS350-92-26 is the struts, we do not have any. That is why I sent all the parts and materials to Dart a while back.

sorry

Jason
